

This is a very large 4 bedroom hill-top property situated above Houlakia Bay. From its dominant position, the house offers uninterrupted views of Mykonos town and several Cycladic Islands: Delos, Rhenia, Syros and Tinos. At night, thousands of tiny lights shine in the distance bringing to life the island and its neighborhood.

A very large terrace enjoys the sun and the sea breeze all day long, while a spacious Camares - a Greek pool house - provides shade and relaxation during hot summer days. At night, it is a perfect place to entertain guests with its very well equipped bar, round dining table, and large sliding windows which access the swimming pool.

The house is built on three levels; the lower one features a large living room and three large bedrooms with wardrobes, en-suite bathrooms and private access to the garden. The middle floor has a modern and very well equipped kitchen with an adjoining dining room, while another comfortable sitting room has access to the main terrace and the BBQ area.

The impressive white staircase leads to the top floor master bedroom which has amazing views of the garden, the sea and the pool. It has also an extravagant open-space bathroom with a Jacuzzi and a large double vanity.

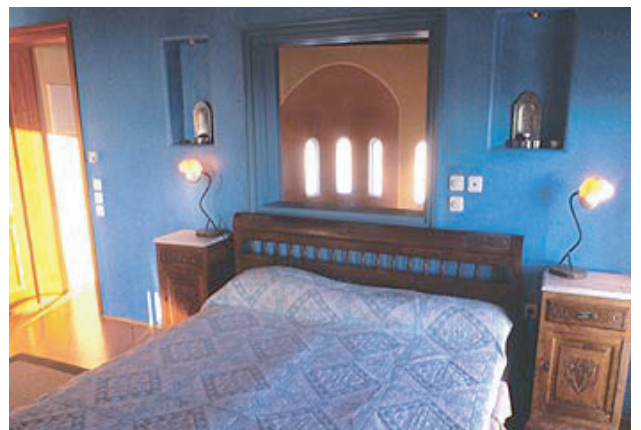

The interior of the house is a combination of vibrant colors, innovative creations and large common spaces. Ideal for those who like to entertain in total comfort but also for those looking for a relaxing holiday where privacy is the main prerequisite.

On the top floor is one master bedroom with double bed & open en-suite bathroom with Jacuzzi whilst the lower floor has two large bedrooms with double bed & en-suite bathroom; one bedroom with double bed & en-suite bathroom. All rooms have access to the main garden.
