This lovely 6 bedroom villa is located on the way into the town of Ravello. It is made up of a main building on three floors: the first includes a triple sitting room with a fireplace, kitchen, a store-room, laundry, a small bathroom with a shower, a large covered patio and a large paved courtyard and an outdoor stone oven.

The second floor includes 3 double bedrooms and a single bedroom, a very large double bathroom, and a large terrace with access to three of the four bedrooms via large French-windows. There are also two separate large annex guesthouses each with a double bedroom, bathroom, patio and a terrace above. The annexes each have their own entrance, but are also accessible via the main building. The annexes are air-conditioned.

The pool-floor has another double guesthouse with a bathroom and a kitchen, a large stone portico, a shower and a bathroom for those using the pool (which measures 22 x 5 metres).

The property has its own private road, which crosses the property and can be used to park also 4/5 cars.

The villa is furnished with antique furniture and paintings and the flooring is of hand-painted ceramic tiles. It can be used any part of the year and is fitted with central heating, satellite TV, a fixed-phone line, a washing machine, a dishwasher, a microwave oven and cleaning service.
