Enjoying spectacular panoramic views, and located next to the coveted Sperone Domaine, this stunning Villa is set in 7,000 m2 of private walled gardens. A short drive will take you to a private path which will take you to a very beautiful beach and the famous Sperone Golf course is only a few minutes' drive. The Villa is built from Red Cedar and stone with an abundance of outdoor terraces and lawns for relaxation offering breathtaking views from every angle.

This superb property offers the luxury of its own private helipad, a full time housekeeper and a Chef to prepare meals. They will cater to all your needs during your stay.

There is a beautiful 55 sq meter infinity pool and over 300 m2 of outdoor terraces from where you can enjoy the sun rise over the Islands of Cavallo and Lavezzi. A pretty gazebo on the highest part of the property is perfect for the evening 'sun downer' while soaking up the truly spectacular views. The gardens are landscaped with olive trees, Mediterranean flowers, and there are 1,500 m2 of beautifully tended lawns.

Indoors, everything has been appointed to the highest standards with modern quality furnishings and high speed satellite internet. The five large double guest rooms have teak interiors and wooden floors, comfortable furniture, air conditioning, king size quality beds, dressing rooms and en suite bathrooms. They are also equipped with Sonos music systems and flat screen TV's. The mattresses and linens are all top quality and each bedroom has its own very private location. Four of the bedrooms have sea views, the fifth bedroom has mountain and sunset views.

The bright and airy large salon has a distinctively 'Colonial' feel about it and is furnished with modern leather chairs and sofas and there are large glass sliding doors on each side which allow the natural breeze to flow through the Villa and give a feeling of outdoor living indoors. On one side, there is a dining room with retractable windows with panoramic views of the countryside, while the other side enjoys the enchanting sea views. Terraces with beautiful outdoor furniture to the front of the salon look over the lovely infinity pool and its smooth wooden decking.

Sperone is a small piece of paradise only a short drive along the scenic route to the famous town of Bonifacio, and a 30 minute drive from Port Vecchio. Corsica is a great destination with miles of beaches, coves and turquoise crystal clear water.
