Perched above the bay of Agios Lazaros and with extensive views over the waters southwest of Mykonos, this is a charming 4 bedroom property part of a large exclusive resort placed in a magnificent waterfront position. The position of the property assures tranquility away from the crowds while being within easy reach of the beaches of Psarou and Platis Yialos as well as the vibrant town of Mykonos.

An elegant infinity pool surrounded by summer furniture dominates the villa's terrace well accompanied by a covered pergola providing shading for the outdoor dining area, ideal for meals enjoyed with the sea's turquoise waters as a background.

Upon entering the property one is greeted by the cozy living room, which through the large windows and French doors allows the same view as the outdoor spaces. The main floor also features the villa's fully equipped kitchen as well as a guest bedroom. Two well-appointed guest bedrooms sharing a spacious common bathroom are located on the lower level of the property. The master bedroom is located on a higher level, which is entirely devoted to this room's space. Sea views can be enjoyed from this floor as well both indoor and outdoors on the master's own balcony.

This is ideal for smaller groups who are looking for a property which offers all necessary amenities combined with quality finishing and generous views of the Aegean sea, all while holidaying on one of the most exclusive resorts on the island.
