This is a majestic and breathtaking 8 bedroom property located in the Aleomandra area facing Delos island and its colorful sunsets in an absolute waterfront position. The property has its own security gate with private parking, direct entrance access to top floor bedrooms and a side staircase access down to the main front door.

A very spacious white-stone & marble waterfront terrace surrounds the house and a gorgeous oversized lagoon-style infinity pool. Elegant teak outdoor furniture under a wooden pergola provides comfort with style. A long outdoor dining table, on one of the side terraces, can accommodate many guests for traditional Greek wood-fire BBQ dinners and here is also an outdoor bar and lounge. The large and bright living room, with whitewashed floorboards, features elegant modern furniture, upholstered with cream and white fabrics. The many windows overlooking the pool and the sea give to this open space a bright and pleasant atmosphere, while the combined open-style kitchen and formal dining area complete the picture.

One master bedroom and a second guest bedroom with en-suite bathrooms and direct access to the pool terrace are located on the ground floor. Upstairs, a second master bedroom and two identical guest bedrooms, all with generous en-suite bathrooms and private terraces, are well decorated with island style furniture of colorful tones. Another three separate garden apartments are located below the swimming pool, accessible by a side staircase, having their own kitchenette, living space and bedroom with en-suite bathroom. These are ideal for staff, or extra guests wishing to have independence from the main house; both have floor to ceiling windows with striking sea views.
