This is a recently built luxury contemporary 6 bedroom property set on a hill in the countryside above Cala Jondal. To reach the house you drive a few minutes up a country lane from the beach. The property is very secure and is walled, gated, has cctv and is alarmed.

Entering through the large gate the house is approached by an expansive driveway, which has been landscaped with olive trees and other indigenous plants. Wide limestone steps lead up to the large front door and upper floor which comprises of an expansive open plan living and adjacent dining area, guest bathroom and the fully equipped kitchen. The living room, which has fabulous sea views, has sliding glass windows, which open on to the infinity pool and pool terrace.

On the lower level there are four bedrooms with en suite bathrooms, Two of these bedrooms open to terraces. Under the pool there is the “pool bedroom” which has its own en suite bathroom.

The one hundred square meter master bedroom suite with spectacular sea views is above the living wing and comprises of an en suite bathroom and a dressing area.

The property sits on twenty five thousand square meters of land and has landscaped gardens and several terraces. There is a barbecue area and an outside dining area seating 12 people. The 25 x 4.2 metre infinity pool has a long terrace with double and single sun beds and a gazebo.

Cala Jondal and The Blue Marlin are minutes away and the airport is a ten minute drive.
