This beautiful 6 bedroom villa is located in the south west of Ibiza, in Porroig, a beautiful exclusive peninsula about twenty minutes drive from Ibiza town. The house is situated in an elevated position overlooking the bay of Es Cubells at the point of Porroig. Visitors to the property enjoy stunning sea views from many terraces balconies and rooms; the breath taking views accentuate the sense of peace and tranquillity experienced from all aspects of the property. The comfortable sunset terrace with large cushions and chill out beds is ideal for a sunset cocktail, while the pool terrace is large and airy with white sun beds and sun umbrellas.

Five minutes from the house on foot there is a natural bay which shelters a beach surrounded by pine trees. Here is a small beach restaurant. A mere fifteen-minute drive through the winding country roads brings you to Ibiza Town.

The interiors of the house boast eclectic contemporary style with furnishings chosen selectively from Europe, Asia and the Americas. There is a large open plan living room which opens to the terraces and also a family room with a sixty five inch plasma television and bookshelves with books and games, a fully equipped kitchen and an inside dining area. There are two bars located on the property one inside and one outside on the pool area. There is also a large shaded outside dining area for twelve to fourteen guests.

There are six bedrooms all with their own en suite bathrooms, each has air conditioning and a safe. On the bedroom level there is also another terrace with sun beds.

This is a truly stylish home with many outdoor seating areas by the large pool and in the garden, the great use of colours will transport you into a world of tranquillity. The atmosphere here is one of sophistication, sunshine and light, a great place to relax and enjoy the seaside location. On many evenings some of the largest yachts will come and anchor in the bay in front of this property which is quite beautiful to see.
